10 tips for running great meetings with Microsoft Teams

We surveyed more than 3,000 people across geographies and generations to understand the biggest problems with everyday meetings, and how they can be resolved. Here are 10 tips to make meetings more productive and collaborative, whether you're running one or just participating.

Getting started

Understand the different types of meetings and optimize your connection for the best meetings

Types of Team Meetings

Traditional private meetings

You can schedule a private meeting with anyone (even external guests), even if they don't use Teams.

Channel meetings

These meetings are associated with a channel, so all team members can choose whether to join the meeting, view the agenda and conversation, and share files—all from within that channel. Add all Teams members are invited not just channel in Add Required Attendees so it will reflect in Outlook.

Maximizing your Internet Bandwidth

Use your best connection

A wired network connection is best. When using a wireless connection, consider your distance from the router and obstacles in between that can affect your connection quality. Recommendation to not be on VPN.

2 Test your current Internet connection speed

If you are experiencing connectivity or bandwidth issues, you can run an Internet Speed Test (Speed Test) to determine if the issue is your local home network.

- BEST: Connect via wired Ethernet to your home router
- GOOD: 5GHz Wi-Fi provides internet at faster speeds, but to smaller areas of your house
- OK: 2.4GHz Wi-Fi provides internet to a larger area, but sacrifices speed

Consider your bandwidth usage

Limit usage of other services (e.g. Netflix, YouTube and XboxLive)

If your home network is experiencing issues, try:

Managing Participant Settings and Meeting Notes

There are three options for an organizer to set participate permissions

- 1 In Teams, go to Calendar, select a meeting, and then Meeting options.
- In Outlook, go to Calendar, select a meeting and then select Settings.

(Important: If you open an existing meeting and edit the Meeting Options from the Outlook ribbon, you need to select Send Update to resend the meeting invitation in order for lobby settings to take effect.)

During a meeting, select the Show participants icon. Then, above the list of participants, choose Manage permissions.

There are two different ways to create Meeting Notes prior to a scheduled meeting

To take notes before a meeting in Outlook, go to Calendar select the Meeting Notes icon located in the ribbon bar.

To take notes before a meeting in Teams, go to Calendar, double click the selected Meeting. The Meeting Notes icon is located in the tab bar.

The hard mute feature under Participants allows you to block people from unmuting their microphones within a meeting.

2 Show Meeting Notes: Notes you take are shared with others and are accessible before, during and after the meeting.

4 Gallery: The default view when you join a meeting. If there are more than nine others in attendance, Teams will prioritize the people who have their video turned on, as well as those that are speaking the most.

5 Large gallery: Enables you to see the videos of up to 49 other people at once. This option is available when at least ten people have their cameras turned on.

Together Mode: Let's you feel like you're in the same shared space with everyone in the meeting. For now, there's one auditorium-style space, but more options are on the way.

Focus: Available when content is being shared. This is the view to choose when you'd like to pay close attention to the content without the distraction of seeing people's video feeds.

8 Full screen: When content is being shared select full screen to take advantage of maximum screen size. This will automatically hide the title bar on the top and task bar on the bottom of the window.

9 Call Me: Transfer call to another device.

10 Apply Background Effects: Apply blur background or apply a custom background so participants in the meeting are not distracted by what's going on behind you when your camera is turned on.

11 Turn On Live Captions: Live captions can make your meeting more inclusive to participants who are deaf or hard of hearing, people with different levels of language proficiency, and participants in a loud place.

12 Start Recording: When you record a meeting, a banner will appear, letting attendees know that the recording has begun. You can access the recording after the meeting ends in the meeting chat or in Stream.

Start transcription: Live Captions display the text version of the audio in the call.. This can be enabled via the control bar within the Call window.

Turn Off Incoming Video: Help the quality of the audio on incoming video by turning off video.

Breakout Rooms (pages 1 of 5)

Individual features contained in this slide may change and should not be relied upon in making purchasing decisions. For official Breakout Room feature and availability dates, please check the Microsoft public roadmap.

3 Manage your rooms from the Breakout Rooms pane To rename your rooms, select the ellipses [...] next to each breakout session and select Rename room.

By default, when you select Start rooms, participants are automatically moved to their room without warning. If you would like participants to have the option to join or decline the breakout room, select the ellipses [...] next to the Breakout Rooms header and deselect the check box for Automatically move people into opened rooms. Participants will see the following dialogue box when breakout rooms are open:

5 Manually assign participants to breakout rooms

If you chose to manually assign participants to rooms, select Assign participants to expand the name list. Select the check boxes next to participants you want to assign to your first breakout room, then select the ellipses [...] to select the breakout room name. Repeat these steps until all participants are assigned to a room.

Note: Participants who dial in via a phone or Teams device cannot be added to a breakout room. Those participants will remain in the main meeting when breakout sessions start.

If need to re-assign participant(s), expand the name list, select the participant(s), select the ellipses [...], then select Unassigned or another room name.

6 Start breakout rooms

When you are ready to start your breakout sessions, select Start rooms

Or you can open only specific rooms by selecting the ellipses [...] by the room name and selecting Open room.

You will see participants leaving the main meeting and joining their breakout room

If a participant leaves their breakout room the organizer can move the participant back to the breakout room by selecting the ellipses [...] next to the participant's name and select Ask to join.

If a participant joins the main meeting late after breakout rooms have opened, the organizer can add the participant to a breakout room. If the participant misses the notification to join the room, select Ask to join.

Breakout Rooms (pages 3 of 5)

Note: Artifacts (chats, files, and recordings) from breakout sessions are viewable by room participants. Only the organizer will have access to artifacts from all breakout rooms.

Breakout Rooms (pages 4 of 5)

Join breakout rooms

When the meeting organizer opens your assigned breakout room, you will automatically be moved there. If the organizer deselected the check box for Automatically move people into opened rooms, you will see this dialog box.

Notes

- Participants cannot join breakout rooms using the same account from multiple devices.
- Participants in breakout rooms cannot add others to the meeting chat, copy meeting details, nudge others to join the meeting, or use "call me back."
- A meeting organizer can join a breakout after it is opened by selecting the ellipse [...] next to a room name and selecting Join room.

Leave breakout rooms

If you select Leave from the control bar in your breakout room, you will hang up—leaving both the breakout and the main session. You can rejoin the main session from your Outlook or Teams calendar.

Once the meeting organizer closes your breakout room you will automatically return to the main meeting. If the organizer deselected the check box for Automatically move people into opened rooms, you will see this dialog box:

If the organizer joins a breakout room and selects End, the breakout room will close. Participants can then rejoin the main meeting by selecting Join main room on the Breakout room has closed dialog box.

Together Mode

Together mode in Teams meetings now offers several scenes to choose from, including a cozy coffee bar, a classy board room, a Minecraft setting, an under-the-sea theme, and more. Also, now meeting organizers and presenters have more control over the scene all participants see when they turn on together mode for themselves.

How to use together mode

Participants can turn on together mode for themselves by selecting the More actions ellipses [...] on the meeting's control bar, then select Together mode. Meeting participants with video on (up to 50) are displayed together, seated in the selected scene. Audio-only participants will continue to show beneath the main meeting stage.

To change the scene for everyone, the meeting organizer or a presenter can select Change scene in the lower left corner of the scene. Their selections will be applied for all meeting participants. Learn more about participant roles.

To turn off Together mode, select Gallery (up to nine videos in a 3x3 grid) or Large gallery (up to 49 videos in a 7x7 grid).

Scenes and capacity is subject to change prior to release

Scene	Seating capacity

Underwater	10

Focus Mode (Content Only)

Now available in the Preview experience, Focus mode provides more space to view content when someone shares a PowerPoint or Whiteboard. To turn on this view:

- 1. Join the meeting on the Teams desktop app (with Preview experience turned on) or the Teams desktop client.
- When someone shares content, select the More actions icon (...) in the meeting control bar, then select Focus. The content will fill the meeting window—the meeting control bar remains at the top.
- 3. To view participants' video shared again, select the More actions icon (...) and then select Gallery.

5 Minutes Left Notification

Microsoft Teams will automatically issue a 5-minute warning when the meeting is nearing a close – It will be triggered for all scheduled private, and channel meetings.

Teams meeting Reactions, including Raise your hand

You can now react during a meeting using emojis thumbs up, heart, applause, and laughing emoji that appear to all participants. Live reactions allow participants to express themselves while on mute and without interrupting. Speakers get instant feedback with this indication of attendee sentiment.

How to use live reactions:

During a meeting in Teams, select the Reaction icon on the control bar, and select from the reaction options (other than Raise hand). Your reaction will be visible to all participants for three seconds.

Do you have something to say in a Teams meeting and don't want to interrupt the presenter? Select the Raise your hand icon in the meeting control bar. Your name will be shown to other attendees by the Participants icon for 10 seconds, followed by a number inside a red circle. A raised hand icon will also show by your name in the Participants pane and on your video, photo, or avatar. The meeting organizer will be able to see everyone who raised their hand, in the order they were raised.

To lower your hand when your question has been answered, select the hand icon again.
